

August 30, 1940.

Mr. James Crump,
614 West 113th St.,
New York City.

Dear Crump:

You are hereby advised that I would like you to work the games here this Sunday, Sept. 1st at Ruppert Stadium. Kindly call me on the phone and notify me whether you can come or not. Would appreciate a call upon the receipt of this letter.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ